Hymn

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem!
Come, and behold Him, born the King of angels!

Refrain:

O come, let us adore Him;

O come, let us adore Him;

O come, let us adore Him, Christ, the Lord!

Sing, choirs of angels; sing in exultation; sing, all ye citizens of heav'n above!
Glory to God! Glory in the highest!

A Moment to Reflect

Prayer of Thanksgiving for Marie's Life

Led by Anne Mercer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins,

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn

Praise God for faithful women who, from the Gospel's birth, have lived their lives for Jesus in every land on earth
by leadership and teaching, with work of loving care, as visionaries and mystics in solitude and prayer.
They stand throughout our history as signs of hope and grace, revealing Jesus' presence within their time and place.

Give thanks for their persistence in claiming Jesus' call to be what he has made them, whose church includes us all:
to serve as priests and leaders, stand at their brothers' side, enriching Jesus' people with gifts too long denied.
Old barriers have fallen;
the Gospel sets us free to follow where God leads us in true equality.

So we, who walk together into the coming day, give thanks for faithful women, who join us as we pray to share with those we care for the truth we have believed, and bear into the future the light we have received.
With called and chosen women who lead us in God's ways, we bring our dedication,
our offering of praise.
